“Four Top Producers Panel”

Presented by

This luncheon is your opportunity to hear four top women producers speak on how they have accomplished their successes. Here are just a few of their honors and awards.

Anna Lee Ahrens’ company is Ahrens Benefits Communications, Inc. Her primary company is Colonial Life and Accident. In 2004 and 2005, she received the Colonial Supplement Insurance Founder’s Award with Most New Accounts in those years, 51 and 75 respectively. Anna has been in sales since 1976.

Nancy Albert Kaufman, CLU, ChFC, has been with Northwestern Mutual since 1978 and she is a Life and Qualifying Member of the Million Dollar Round Table (MDRT). She specializes in estate analysis and implements insurance solutions, retirement and employee benefits for her clients.

Glenda Kemple, CPA, CFP, has an extensive and accomplished background that spans over 20 years. She was the co-founder and principal of Quest Capital Management Inc before founding Kemple Capital LLC in 2003. She was named among “Worth” magazine’s “250 Best Financial Advisers” for the past 4 years and to the list of “100 Top Advisors” according to “Mutual Funds” magazine, in addition to numerous additional honors.

Yuka Nakahara-Goven, CLU, MBA, has been with New York Life since 1985 and is on the Agents Advisory Council. She is a Qualifying Member of MDRT and is an International Liaison between Japan and NAIFA, WIFS, the American College and MDRT. She has spoken at numerous MDRT meetings in Japan.

It’s not just about what products these women offer to their clients and prospects – it’s also the daily activities they diligently handle, the strategies they use to attract prospects, delegating tasks to someone else, and the ability to overcome obstacles in their journeys to success.
